- D. has no financial interest, direct or indirect, in any transaction made by the association without the approval of the board of directors;
- E. has met the criteria or is committed to meeting the criteria of service as established by the board of directors;
- F. neither holds nor announces candidacy to any elected public office;
- G. shall not serve as a council president simultaneously while serving on the board of directors;
- H. has not served more than 15 years on the board of directors; and
- I. has not served as Texas PTA president.

Section 3. Power and Authority of the Texas PTA Board of Directors. The business and affairs of the association shall be managed by or under the direction of the Texas PTA Board of Directors, which may exercise all the powers of the association, subject to the restrictions imposed by law, the Articles of Incorporation or these bylaws.

Section 4. Duties. Execute fiduciary responsibilities for the association including duty of care, duty of loyalty and duty of obedience.

Section 5. Meetings.

- A. Regular Meeting. Three regular meetings of the board of directors shall be held in each calendar year, one in conjunction with the annual meeting, one between September 1 and November 1, and one between February 1 and March 1.
- B. Special Meetings. Special meetings of the board of directors may be called by the president or five members of the board of directors with notice given in writing, including electronic mail, at least three days before the meeting to each member of the board of directors. Notice may be waived by the members of the board of directors as provided by law.
- C. Quorum. A majority of the members of the board of directors shall constitute a quorum.

Section 6. Term of Office. The officers shall assume office at the close of the annual meeting at which they are elected. These officers shall serve a term of two years or until their successors assume office. The officers shall not serve more than two terms in the same office, with the exception of the President-Elect who shall only serve one term.

The four elected directors-at-large shall assume office at the close of the annual meeting at which they are elected. The two appointed directors-at-large shall assume office immediately upon the approval of their appointments by the board of directors. The directors-at-large shall serve for a term of two years or until their successors assume office. The directors-at-large shall not serve more than two terms.

Section 7. Vacancy.

- A. In the case of a vacancy in the office of president, the president-elect shall serve as president for the remainder of the term. A vacancy in the office of president-elect shall be filled at the next annual meeting by the voting body, if the annual meeting will occur within a quarterly time period from the date of the vacancy, otherwise at a special meeting of the members, called by the board of directors according to Article VII (Meetings), Section 6 (Special Meetings). In the interim, duties of the president-elect shall be delegated by the president.
- B. Any other vacancy in any office other than president or president-elect shall be filled by an affirmative vote of a majority of the remaining members of the board of directors.
- C. A vacancy in the position of elected director-at-large shall be filled by an affirmative vote of a majority of the remaining members of the board of directors, and a vacancy in the position of appointed director-at-large shall be filled by appointment of the president subject to the approval of the board of directors.

Section 8. Removal and Resignation. Any member of the board of directors may be removed from office by the affirmative vote of two-thirds of the members of the board of directors then in office. Any member of the board of directors may resign at any time by delivering a written resignation to the Texas PTA President and Secretary.

Section 9. Electronic Meetings.

- A. The Texas PTA Board of Directors is authorized to meet by telephone conference call or through other electronic communications media so long as the meeting has been properly noticed in accordance with these bylaws and all the members may simultaneously hear each other and participate during the meeting.
- B. The board of directors may vote by postal or electronic mail between meetings. Any action required or permitted to be taken at any meeting of the board of directors may be taken without a meeting if a written consent, setting forth the action so taken, is signed by all the members of the board of directors and such written consent shall have the same force and effect as a unanimous vote at a meeting of the board of directors.

Section 10. Notice. Notice shall be in writing via electronic mail, text or other group communication technology agreed upon by the board. Such notices shall be directed to the director's contact information on record with Texas PTA. A waiver of notice shall be via the same means as the original notice, filed with the records of the meeting, whether before or after the holding thereof, and shall be equivalent to the giving of such notice. Presence at any meeting without objection also shall constitute waiver of any required notice.

ARTICLE X

ARTICLE XIII Indemnification

Unless expressly prohibited by law, the association shall indemnify any person made, or threatened to be made, a party to an action, suit or proceeding (whether civil, criminal, administrative or investigative), whether such is an action by or in the right of the association or otherwise, by reason of the fact that such person is or was a director, officer, employee or agent of the association or serves or served any other enterprise at the request of the association (all of such persons being sometimes referred to in this Article Fifteen as a “corporate functionary”), against all expenses (including attorneys’ fees), judgments, fines and amounts paid in settlement actually and reasonably incurred by such person in connection with such action, suit or proceeding, provided such person acted in good faith and in a manner he or she reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of the association and, with respect to any criminal action or proceeding, had no reasonable cause to believe his/her conduct was unlawful, except that no indemnification shall be made in relation to matters as to which such person shall have been finally adjudged in such action, suit or proceeding to be liable to the association.

Any indemnification under this Article shall be made by the association only as authorized in the specific case upon a determination that indemnification of the corporate functionary is proper in the circumstances because he or she has met the applicable standard of conduct set forth in this Article. Such determination shall be made by the Texas PTA Board of Directors by a majority vote of all disinterested directors.

The rights of indemnification provided for in this Article shall be in addition to all rights to which any corporate functionary may be entitled under any agreement or as a matter of law or otherwise, and shall inure to the benefit of the corporate functionary’s estate, heirs, executors and administrators. If this Article or any portion hereof shall be invalidated on any ground by a court of competent jurisdiction, the association shall nevertheless indemnify each corporate functionary to the full extent permitted by any applicable portion of this Article that shall not have been invalidated.

The association may purchase and maintain insurance on behalf of any corporate functionary against any liability asserted against him/her and incurred by him/her in any such capacity or arising out of his/her status as such, whether or not the association would have the power to indemnify him/her against such liability under the provisions of this Article.

ARTICLE XIV
Parliamentary Authority

The rules contained in the current edition of Robert's Rules of Order Newly Revised shall govern Texas PTA in all cases to which they are applicable and in which they are not inconsistent with these bylaws, the Articles of Incorporation, and any other rules adopted by Texas PTA.

ARTICLE XV
Amendment of Bylaws

Section 1. Submission of Amendments.

- A. Amendments to the bylaws may be submitted by the Texas PTA Board of Directors, a standing or special committee of Texas PTA, or a constituent division or its board of directors.
- B. Amendments to be considered at an annual meeting shall be submitted to the Texas PTA Governance Committee on or before January 1, with the exception of the Texas PTA Board of Directors, who may propose amendments at any time provided that the requirement for notice has been met.
- C. Amendments to be considered at a special meeting of the members shall be submitted to the Texas PTA Governance Committee at least 45 days preceding the special meeting at which they will be considered, with the exception of the Texas PTA Board of Directors, who may propose amendments at any time provided that the requirement for notice has been met.

Section 2. Notice. Amendments to the bylaws shall be posted on the Texas PTA website no later than 30 days preceding the opening of the meeting of members at which they are to be considered and shall be included in the notice of such meeting of members.

Section 3. Vote Required. The bylaws may be amended by the voting body at an annual meeting or a special meeting of the members by a two-thirds vote provided that notice as described in Section 2 has been given and that the amendments have been approved by the Texas PTA Board of Directors. Adopted bylaw amendments shall be posted on the Texas PTA website no later than 30 days following the adjournment of the meeting at which they were adopted.

As approved by delegates at the Texas PTA annual meeting on July 22, 2023.
